

Ogden, Utah / Alpine Trip / Jan 28 – Feb 2, 2010

Trip Leader: Greg Robertson

Contact Information: GregAASC@garcon-consulting.com 734-645-0630

Cost: $987 plus $30 fuel surcharge for first bag and $50 for second bag.

Join us for the Ann Arbor Ski Club's first trip to Ogden, Utah. We will ski one day at Powder Mountain and three days at Snowbasin. With 2,959 feet of vertical, Snowbasin was the site of the 2002 Winter Olympics Men's and Women's Downhill and Super-G competitions. A recent Ski Magazine feature article called Snowbasin "The Best Mountain You've Never Skied." The Ogden resorts are renowned for their lack of crowds and each offers a wide variety of runs for skiers of all levels.

Trip Includes: Pre-trip party, Ogden Welcome party, Post-trip party, airfare from Detroit Metro, ground transportation to/from Salt Lake City airport, 5 nights lodging in Ogden, 3 day Snowbasin lift ticket, 1 day Powder Mountain lift ticket.

Lodging: Ogden Marriott (2 persons per deluxe hotel room). Daily breakfast buffet included. Located in the center of downtown adjacent to the Historic 25th Street. A variety of unique casual and upscale restaurants, shopping and more can be found within easy walking distance. Also a short walk away is the Salomon High-Adventure Recreation Center with indoor surfing, skydiving, bowling, and more.

Payment schedule: Signup: $300; October 1st $387; November 30th $300

Sign up: Starts at the Corn Roast, August 30, 2009.